

The Rainbow

Junction cafe

The Junction cafe is a welcoming place,
a refuge for all kinds of folk.

No matter what religion, age or race,
whether you're a lass or a bloke.

So come in and have a meal,
or even just a brew.

No matter how you feel,
when you leave you'll feel like new.

So, you don't need food or drink,
still call by for a natter.

However high or low your mood,
you'll always be someone that matters!
